Help the BackSoftball Campaign: Enter the ISF International Photography Contest

The International Softball Federation is reaching out to photographers and softball fans from around the world to gather some compelling imagery to portray the action, emotion, and passion of softball for the BackSoftball campaign. We are looking for those dramatic shots that really bring the sport to life.

Have you asked how to get involved and help towards the reinstatement of the sport on the 2016 Olympic Programme? Now is your chance to capture that perfect picture that will “tell a thousand words.”

We are looking for photos that tell the story of the smiles, tears, joy, anger, wholesomeness, fair play, universality, and competitive rivalry that are all part of the essence of softball. Focus in on catching players in action, the bats, the gloves, base stealing, sliding, cheering, signing autographs on t-shirts or balls, and let’s not forget the fans!

So grab your cameras and hit the grandstands! Or, start combing through your digital library.

The contest will be held from July 31, 2008 to November 1, 2008 and cover a series of categories: a) Pitching, b) Hitting/Batting, c) Fielding, d) Sliding/Base Stealing, e) Crowd/Fan shots, f) Miscellaneous Player shots. Photos must be taken between January 1, 2007 and October 31, 2008 and up to three images may be submitted per category. Winners will be announced December 1, 2008.

The winners will be selected by representatives from the international softball community and members of the ISF BackSoftball Task Force. Winning images will be utilized in promotional materials for BackSoftball, and the winners’ names will be listed on our official website.
